Alcott High School for the Humanities ensures an environment of safety—both physical and academic—that enables the judgment-free exchange of ideas and opinions. Each individual member of the learning community will be respected, without regard to race, culture, gender, sexual orientation or ability and will be empowered to reach his/her maximum potential. In addition, students who are accepted to AHSH understand they elect to be part of AVID, a national program supporting college readiness and postsecondary goals.

I affirm that all information provided on this application is true. I understand that this application does not guarantee acceptance to Alcott High School for the Humanities.
